Attlee Is Urged To Visit Seattle

SEATTLE, Aug. 25 (AP)—The World Affairs Council of Seattle yesterday invited former British Prime Minister Clement Attlee to come to Seattle and "see America too."

The invitation was sent to Attlee, now visiting in Hong Kong, by Council President Payne Karr said the invitation was extended to give the British Labor party leader a chance to "clear the air" around his visit with communist Chinese officials at Peking.

Karr said a Seattle visit would assure Attlee an "important platform" for promoting better understanding between English speaking peoples.

Recent research indicates that the common impression that Attlee developed enlarged hearts and die young of heart disease is false.

Spud Eating Is Declining; Official Says

are making potatoes the chart doesn't show it but consumption has crept up to 105 pounds per capita.

And Case believes that modern health studies which show so many poorly developed youngsters are eating more potatoes for youngsters of the future.

"Potatoes are the perfect food for the young," Case said. "Mama has been afraid she'd eat so far she hasn't been preparing them for you realize that no other food can be prepared in so many ways as potatoes."

Case said the history of the potato is an exciting story and he cited as an example the case of the French.

Back in the days of Louis XVI, he said, the French used to eat potatoes to get rid of the potato. They were planted in a conspicuous place, and heavily guarded were placed.

The authorities guarded the potato, and he said the potato was eaten and have been confirmed potato eaters ever since.

Case said the potato to the last, Case believes it may be the best line of defense against starvation in case of an atomic war.

"Potatoes can be grown in every state," he said. "They're also the one food that can be stored. Invaders can burn storage places and destroy the grain, but they can't plow up all the potatoes."

Repayment Plan On Project OK'd

DENVER, Aug. 25 (AP)—A bill signed by President Eisenhower authorizes an earlier repayment plan for farmers of the Black Canyon irrigation district.

The secretary of interior now may approve a new plan under which farmers will repay the federal government for constructing the Payette division of the Boise reclamation project.

An increase of more than five million dollars in construction costs for the unit will be met by repayments under the present schedule "exceedingly burdensome and beyond the users' ability to pay," the senate interior and insular affairs committee said.

Mrs. O'Toole died in Jefferson county, Colo., in 1942.

The petition was prepared by Lawrence B. Quinn.

Drafts Studied

MANILA, Aug. 25 (AP)—Officials of the eight nations that will meet here next month to discuss an "atomic pact" today studied draft agreements crystallizing differences that already have developed.

The draft texts were not made public, but official sources said the chief points at issue are what areas pact members will protect and whether retaliation against communist aggression shall be automatic.

The meeting was held at the AEC's headquarters in Washington, D.C., and was the first of a series of such meetings.

Attorney Claims State Liquor Law Unconstitutional

MOUNTAIN HOME, Aug. 25 (AP)—The attorney for a 40-year-old Pine Bluff operator declared yesterday that the state constitution prohibits the law which led to the man's arrest 10 days ago on charges of selling liquor without a license.

Attorney Pete Leguineche asked Elmore County Probate Judge E. W. Lattimore to dismiss the charges against John Tate, whose tavern was raided by state liquor law enforcement officers Aug. 12.

Lattimore said he would give a ruling on Sept. 9. He set Tate's bond at $500. Preliminary hearing for Leguineche, charged with illegally serving liquor for Tate, was postponed to Sept. 9.

The law prohibiting sale of liquor without a license is unconstitutional, Leguineche argued. He also said it was unconstitutional for the legislature to make the possession of liquor a felony offense, and the licensed sale of liquor under illegal conditions is more misdemeanor.

The case against Tate is being handled by Elmore County Prosecuting Attorney Robert McLaughlin.

Minor Blasts Scheduled in Pend Oreille

SPOKANE, Aug. 25 (AP)—The navy plans several underwater explosions this fall at Lake Pend Oreille, but will use only small TNT charges. No bigger than a marble, Commander R. O. Gooding says.

Gooding, an officer with the David Taylor Model Basin commission in Washington, D. C., reveals details of the tests in a conference with Willard Taft, Spokane public utilities commissioner.

Not satisfied that Taft, who has objected to proposed tests in the past because of possible danger to the city's water supply from the lake, said he still isn't completely satisfied the tests will be safe.

Taft said he will continue to protest to the navy department while awaiting more definite information on the tests.

Gooding flew back to Washington yesterday.

Assurance Given

Chief Petty Officer J. O. Smith, who is in charge of a small navy research station at Perouse on the south end of the lake, said the TNT explosions would weigh only about a quarter of an ounce.

He said they wouldn't hurt any fish unless they got within two feet, and would have no effect on any underground water system.

The navy called off similar tests earlier because of strong Spokane and north Idaho protests, and denied last week it contemplated any "depth-charge" experiments this year at Pend Oreille.

"Peaceful Co-Existence" of East, West At Hong Kong Is War of Taut Nerves

(Editorial) "Peaceful co-existence" is a term used by the Chinese to describe the situation in Hong Kong. It is a term which is used to describe the situation in Hong Kong, where the British and Chinese are living together. The Chinese are not happy with the British, and the British are not happy with the Chinese. The situation is a war of taut nerves.

The British police try to get along with their opposite numbers. But it's not easy.

Last spring, while a new fence was being erected by the British, a Chinese communist rushed up to a Chinese man clutching a hand grenade and shouting in Chinese that the fence could not be put up.

"I pulled out my pistol and hit him," said a British official. "He went away after that. That's the kind of co-existence they seem to understand best."

TUCSON, Aug. 25 (AP)—A veteran civilian flight instructor and a 21-year-old North American N. 7 aviation cadet were killed yesterday in the crash of a T-6 training plane 15 miles southwest of here.

Killed were William E. Veile, 34, Tucson, an instructor at Marana air training field since 1931, and John W. Quinn, Jr., 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Quinn, Sr., of the New Jersey community.

Marana air base officials said the plane was on an instrument training flight when the accident occurred at noon yesterday.

Questions Raised on Russian Development of Atomic Subs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—The American admiral in the world has been drinking atomic power for years on submarines when there were no unusual submarine operations there. "We can talk about it," says here is not trying to say of the provocative remark by the Pentagon officials in an interview this week by this Stump, Pacific commander, that the long line of submarines from Washington in recent years has been estimated at 350 to 400 submarines, says about 100 were in the hands of hundreds of Soviet submarines is not in itself sufficient for the frequently official concern. Most of them known to be old types, primarily for close-in defense in waters such as the Baltic and Black seas. Russians did get some German submarines and German submarines after World War II. But the United States has the same and has actually built better

Accountant Tells Of Clever Fraud

PORTLAND, Aug. 25 (AP)—An accountant has told how he sent money tax return statements to about half of the Internal revenue districts in the United States, claiming a $650 refund on each, and collected nearly $10,000. James L. Proctor II, 37, Vancouver, Wash., was the accountant. He waived preliminary hearing before acting Commissioner John Gatzert and was jailed in lieu of $15,000 bond.

John L. Sawyer, chief of intelligence for the Internal revenue bureau here, said Proctor had made a statement which was being prepared for his signature.

School Bus Drivers Have Had No Fatal Crashes in Two Years

BOISE, Aug. 25 (AP)—Perhaps the bright sun blocked his view, perhaps he was unfamiliar with the road, perhaps he never even noticed that the yellow bus ahead had come to a stop on the highway. A column of children had filled through the door. One of them—a young girl—darted out ahead and across the road toward her home. The motorist, swinging wide around the bus, had hardly time to touch his horn or press the brakes. By the time he stopped—the little girl was dead.

That was almost two years ago. Since that autumn afternoon on a rural highway near Eagle, some 100,000 Idaho school children have been taken to class and back in the big yellow buses without a serious accident.

"But we're not leaving anything to chance," the state's school transportation director, George E. Denman, said today. "It was sent circular to all of Idaho's local school district officials, who handle the mass transportation details, who call for safer buses and safer drivers to go hand in hand with the safer roads that have had a lot to do in recent years with lowering the death and injury toll among school children."

Denman said that one of the biggest problems of the transportation system is the training of substitute drivers—men who, with little experience at the job, are called out at short notice to take a load of kids to school.

"Substitute bus drivers" continue to be a major point of weakness in safe bus operation, he wrote.

"Drivers without training and hurriedly placed on the job form a great risk to the lives of children."

He cited the example of a train engineer who told school officials in north Idaho recently of narrowly

Power Firm's Station Looks Like Dwelling

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Some of the most beautiful homes in the capital cost a heap of dough—but don't sleep any night.

The lavas are well-maintained. There are shrubs. Flowers, in one neighborhood, there is a pretty little family working hard. Each morning there are white bottles on the front stoop, but they contain milk.

The homes were built by the "Poloma Electric Power Co." and the homes are situated in a similar equipment to feed a stream of power to the surrounding community.

"Silent Neighbors"

Neighbors call them "silent neighbors." Up to now there are 20 such homes and they are beautiful on the outside.

The folks next door love their "neighbors" because there are no loud parties at night, and children from the fancy homes running across the lawns.

Plus of these "homes" was built in 1939 when the power company was forced to the fact that it was not possible to get the demand for electricity and to supply current to the neighborhoods, it had to move into the exclusive sections.

Plants Beautified

Plants beautified the neighborhoods back then were not things of beauty. So a smart man with Peppo, as it is called, told his boys, "Let's make our plants pretty."

The home are a bane to the existence of a family. They are up and ring a phony bell in the pursuit of new business. Brain ailments are the same.

These folks are fooled by the Veneer, which are painted on the windows.

When the need for a new suburban town (Lafayette) built, the Peppo people search out a likely spot where it will do them the most good. They take pictures of the grounds. They also photograph the home of their "neighbors." An architect's drawing of the home that is something like the architectural appearance that is desired.

Around Christmas time, the trees on the lawns are fixed up with lights. Holly is put on the door.

Horse From Elba Wins High Award

The stallion was awarded the reserve championship in performance, was judged first for stallions in the 4 years or older class, third in stock horse performance, second in men's pleasure class, second in the Grand prize stunts race, first in the rope race and first in the 220-yard race.

Navy Engages in Continuous Task of Facelifting Its Ammo

BY HAL BOYLE
VALLEJO, Calif., Aug. 25.—U.S. Navy is engaged in the continuous task of facelifting its ammunition.

This is one of its jobs the public rarely hears about. But ammunition, like most things, "ages" in this world, often out of date or shows the wear-and-tear of time.

Here in the Mare Island shipyard, which next month celebrates the 100th anniversary of its founding by Adm. David G. Farragut, a great depot-overhaul the ammunition of the long line of ships that come here to drydock. It is a strange kind of beauty-parlor.

The depot two-thirds of a square mile in area, has 187 buildings, 20 miles of railroad tracks and 26 miles of paved roads.

The work is highly skilled and potentially dangerous. A single static spark from a human body could cause a disastrous explosion. Some 8,000 tons of ammunition are stored in underground bunkers—enough to make a baby A-bomb blast.

To prevent the buildup of static electricity the technicians wear "leg irons" that ground them at every step. Visitors check their matches and cigarette lighters at the gate.

In the last fiscal year the depot produced 5,130 tons of new ammunition and overhauled 22,022 tons of unserviceable ammunition.

Lieut. Comdr. William F. Goodberry, "When ammunition deteriorates so far that it is too dangerous to be broken down and put to new use, it is taken to sea and dumped. Nice job—if you can get it, and enjoy ocean cruising. Bound to give a man something to worry about besides sea sickness."

Few things give a man more of a feeling of the erosion of money than a change in the price of haircuts and hotel rooms.

Somewhere in my youth I got the idea that a quarter was the proper price for a haircut, and that by an eternal law of nature hotel rooms would rent for $2 a night forever.

But today in some big American cities it costs $1-a-day-up to park your pet pooch in a dogel, This week it's a haircut in San Francisco. The price was $1.50, and I don't have enough hair left to cause!

Whatever happened to the value of a quarter anyway? Will it soon merely be a collector's item—like the buffalo nickel? You can still impress a bellhop with a two-bit tip, but the impression he gets is that you are a two-bit chesapeake.

A panhandler stopped me here the other day and asked me, "Buth er, call you appra. A quarter for a bowl of soup."

I gave him the quarter. He took it, fidgeted a moment, and said: "You know there's a penny law."

District Court Trying to Settle $250,000 Question on Estate

LEWISTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—Idaho's official: the Norwegian widow of Neil-Berni Nielsen, who spoke through an interpreter; and the one-time wife of Andrew Nielsen, who was divorced from this wife apparently before making his money in Norway.

Also involved in the case is Ida Nielsen, 45, of Lewiston, who is the widow of a man who died in 1947, leaving an estate estimated at $1 million. The estate was divided among two young men who emigrated from Norway around the turn of the century, and the court must decide which of them is the heir.

A non-jury trial of the case began in district court last week and was approaching the winding this morning. The hearing has featured testimony by a "Finnish" handwriting expert, a Norwegian Consul

Complaint Filed

A complaint for $25 was filed in Twin Falls probate court Wednesday against Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Blankenship by J. W. Merds.

The complaint alleges that the couple has failed to pay the $25 in rent for the premises at 297 Addison avenue west. According to Merds, the money, which would cover the month ending Sept. 10, was due Aug. 11. Roy E. Smith is the attorney for the plaintiff.

CLUB TO MEET

HAGERMAN, Aug. 25—The Valley Volunteers 4-H livestock club will meet Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sigurd Williams.

Foundation Aide Asks Parents To Guard Children From Polio

As the season for polio nears Dr. Quentin Mack, vice chairman of Idaho's polio planning committee of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, urges parents to take precautionary measures against the possibility of their children coming down with polio-myelitis.

1. Avoid fatigue and chilling.
2. Follow your doctor's advice about mouth and throat operations.
3. Teach children to wash hands carefully before eating and after going to the toilet. Don't use another's toilet.
4. Tell your doctor if these symptoms appear: headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, stiff neck or back. Put sick person to bed promptly.
5. Contact your local March of Dimes chairman as soon as a case of "polio" has been diagnosed in the family by a physician.

Gumma globulin is available through the state health office for temporary protection about five weeks—only if given before exposure to the disease. For this reason it is effective for groups and communities in which polio is occurring, every 637,000 confinements.

Parking Fines

A total of $22 in bonds was posted with Twin Falls city police Tuesday for parking violations.

Posting of bonds for over-time parking were Jim Grunski, Barbara Swin, Fredrick Sencer, Ed Hale, Jerry Kleinkopf, Douglas Schow, T. Reeder, Joe Trilack, Elva Olson, Silver-R. M. Tractor, P. Barry, Mrs. A. E. Vaughn, George Bever, Mrs. Bert Knefel and Ray Nelson.

Paul Brown, Kenneth Hube and P. Tilley posted $2 bonds for improper parking on sidewalks.

Quadruplets occur about once in every 637,000 confinements.

Pandemonium

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 25 (AP)—Walters, Frances, Glas had trouble when she was in the machine in an effort to unplug it.

It took a life saving squad; ambulance, two policemen and five firemen armed with hacksaws to free her finger.

High schools in the United States spend an average of $50 to $70 each year on protective clothing for football players.

Martin to Speak In Coeur d'Alene

He said Martin will address a luncheon meeting at the North Idaho Junior College. Arrangements will be made to accommodate more than 600, he said.

Scientist Has Job of Making Selling Holes to Government

By HARMON W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—I know a man who sells holes to the government.

These are important holes. They are vital in cancer research, radar equipment, air force communications and other projects so secret the government is hush about the holes it is buying.

Actually, George Jordan is more than just a seller of holes. He is a scientist who develops new uses for holes and his job is so complicated that it took me quite a while to get his thinking through my head.

George, a quiet little man, works for the Sels Corporation of America, a firm of Philadelphia heat development engineers who can arrange holes in ceramic filters with incredible precision.

It seems that tiny holes in ceramic filters may help lick cancer, but it's best let George carry on from here.

"The most fundamental cancer research today involves the creation and multiplication of pure cancer cells of the various cancer strains. A great deal of this cancer work is being done at the National Cancer Institute, a bureau of Orela Culp Hobbs's health department Bethesda, Md. From Bethesda, the institute ships these cancer cells to laboratories all over the world where other scientists are expected to find out what makes the cells grow, or why they die."

The National Cancer Institute, Jordan told me, has learned that the best food to keep these cells alive is the broth from part of a 90-day-old chicken egg. This broth must reach the pure cancer cells absolutely uncontaminated by the types of bacteria inherent in the egg or in the air.

That's where the holes come in. Jordan's company has developed for the institute a ceramic filter, with 8,000,000 holes per square inch. The holes are so tiny that the pure broth can seep through, but bacteria are filtered out.

The air force heard about the cancer filters and decided it could also use some of Jordan's tiny holes. Now it's turning ceramic filters into are used to insulate pilots' head-phones against moisture and atmosphere—things that make the headphones uncomfortable and also uncommunicative.

Some other agencies are buying filters from Jordan's firm but he can't talk about that.

"These holes are so important to the government that some agencies are buying them and won't even tell me what they are doing with them," he said.

Corporation Levy Cut Actually Is Benefit to Many Taxpayers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—A tax cut hailed chiefly as a boon to corporations actually will benefit many individual taxpayers than any other one part of the new tax revision law.

Experts estimate almost 10 million persons will pay reduced income taxes next spring because of much faster deductions for wear and tear on new equipment or buildings.

A farmer can benefit if he gets a new tractor or barn; a grocer or other shopowner can benefit if he buys a new display counter; a lawyer can benefit on books for his law library; a doctor gets a tax cut on new medical equipment; a landlord benefits on permanent improvements to his property; even a writer can benefit if he buys a new typewriter.

Altogether, individual taxpayers are expected to get tax reductions from this provision amounting to 73 million dollars the first year, much more later. The same provision will cut taxes on an estimated 600,000 corporations by about 201 million dollars the first year.

You can claim depreciation deductions on buildings or equipment which are used in producing income and which have a useful life of three years or more. You can't deduct, for example, on a home an "addition" to the business. If the useful life is less than three years, you deduct the cost of the item as a regular business expense, but not as depreciation.

Depreciated deductions are spread over the years of useful life of an item. They add up eventually to the total cost of the item. They are deducted from your income before you apply the tax rate.

The new law permits much bigger deductions on new equipment or buildings in the first years of useful life. That means smaller deductions toward the end of the period of useful life. For millions of taxpayers, it means substantial taxes over the next few years. The more useful life of the item, the more taxes you pay. But, if you can't deduct it, you can't deduct it.

Care of Your Children
By ANGELO PATRI
"His grandmother wants him to shock some people, but I cannot feel that grandmothers' indulgence of children ever hurt them. A little spoiling goes a long way toward making a child happy and a break in the routine is not always a bad thing. I am inclined to believe it is a good idea now and then. It breaks the tension that a day by day routine is likely to set up."

Hansen Huskies Hit Hard by Graduation

HANSEN, Aug. 25.—Hansen football coach Billy Emerson isn't too optimistic about the Huskies chances this season on the gridiron. "From a team that won three, lost two and tied one in 1953, Emerson lost the entire starting backfield and all but two of the starting linemen. All positions are wide open and right now I don't know enough about any of the boys to say whether they will be playing much ball or not."

"I've got eight returning veterans, three backs and five linemen."

Suits have been issued to 17 men, Emerson reported, with several more expected out in the future.

The returning veterans include Stanley Jones, 5' 10, 185-pound guard; Everett Bailey, 5' 10, 145-pound junior back; Denny Taylor, 5' 10, 135-pound senior end; Robert Hartley, 5' 10, 145-pound senior back; Norman Hill, 5' 10, 150-pound senior end; and Bill Smith, 5' 10, 150-pound senior end.

The Huskies will open their season at Caldwell, Idaho, on Sept. 1. The rest of the schedule follows: Sept. 10, Paul (Idaho) at Hansen; Sept. 24, Hagerman at Hansen; Oct. 1, Murtaugh at Hansen; Oct. 8, Caldwell at Hansen; Oct. 22, Hagerman at Hansen; Nov. 5, Declo at Hansen.

The game was called at the end of the 5 1/2 innings of play because of rain. It was halted in the fifth inning with the score 1-0 in favor of the Huskies. The game was rescheduled for Wednesday night.

Patton Leads Big Field Into Third Round

DETROIT, Aug. 25.—Billy Joe Patton, the irrepressible Houdini of the fairways, turned from scambler to sharpshooter Tuesday and led an imposing group of Uncle Sam's international stars into the third round of the U. S. Amateur golf championship.

Never taking a bogey and playing near perfect golf after the third hole, the bespectacled lumberman from Morganton, N. C., cut down young Tim Holland, Rockville, Conn., 2 and 1.

The victory by the unwhittled, eye-cracking southerner, amateur sensation of the year's Masters and National open-tourname runner-up, showed the advance of Walker and America's cup veterans which set up a third-round duel Wednesday between two of the best of the game.

Harvie Ward, Jr., and Frank Stranahan.

Ward, a short, snappy thunderbolt, Ward, 28-year-old San Francisco auto salesman, whipped little Jim Vickers, Wichita, Kan., former college champion, 2 and 1, while Stranahan, Toledo hero to surprise, finished with a 1-10.

There is a danger included in Bill Campbell, Huntington, West Va., runner-up this year in both the British and Canadian amateur events; former Don Cherry, former Canadian king, and Jim Jackson, a member of the 1953 Walker cup team.

Just 11 years ago, Alfred Lawson, through his Humanity Foundation, Detroit, bought the grounds and buildings of the defunct Des Moines university for a reported $80,000.

World Worry Pulling Down Ike's Golfing

DENVER, Aug. 25.—President Eisenhower's golf shows signs of preoccupation with world problems according to a visitor at the Summer White House offices.

The presidential golf analyst was Sen. H. Alexander Smith, R. N. J., chairman of the senate labor committee and head of the far east subcommittee.

Smith visited briefly with the president the other morning.

"He said his golf isn't what it ought to be," Smith told reporters. "He said it has never been better, but I can't concentrate."

Smith said he told the president, "The trouble is, you're thinking about Cambodia or some place."

"That's right," Smith quoted the president as replying.

Smith is here visiting with his son before leaving Sept. 1 from San Francisco with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles for the southeast Asia seven-nation meeting in Manila.

He said Mr. Eisenhower was "quite pleased" with the results of the recently adjourned congress.

Lawson contended it was healthier to bury smoke than to let it escape from chimneys and contained the air. Early this year the school was down the big smokestack, stepped up the only visible outlet and the smoke disappeared, but the school still used tons of coal.

It was rumored that Lawson had put his theory of "penetrability" to work and built a maze of the pipes leading into a big tunnel in the ground where the smoke settled. Engineers said it was impossible, but could find no trace of smoke escaping anywhere.

But the mystery of the University of Lawsonomy may never be solved. The school is up for sale, its demise, however, is wrapped in as much dispute as its strange life. Two prominent Des Moines men were reported about to have wound up negotiations to buy it 10 days ago when Lawson immediately canceled the deal.

They paid $1,000 to Lawson last April for an option on the school and filed a contesting claim. They said Lawson had pledged them to secrecy about the transaction.

Events Reported

SHOEHORN, Aug. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knowles and son, Park City, Utah, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peugh over the week-end.

John A. Holley and son, Optima, Utah, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holley in North Shoshone.

BAPTIZED

HANSEN, Aug. 25.—William Hugh Lamb and Cheryl Ann Lamb, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lamb, Ogden, Utah, were baptized at the Hansen Community Methodist church by the Rev. Kenneth Heide Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lamb and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sanderson.
